

A Spiritual Covering

Though the exact phrase "spiritual covering" is not in the Bible (just like the terms "trinity" and "rapture"), IMF uses this open-ended expression to help others understand what we provide and expect from our membership. We believe that the terms and phrases such as "spiritual accountability", "Christian fellowship", "discipleship", "mentoring", and "intercessory prayer" are biblical concepts and all contribute to the concept of "spiritual covering" as we "submit" to one another out of our common reverence for Christ, not with a heavy hand of control, but as a loving arm of encouragement and biblical truth.

(1 Peter 5:1-5; Hebrews 13:17; 1 Thess. 5:12-13; 2 Cor. 8:21; Prov. 27:17)

- IMF is an evangelical association of ministers and churches with an emphasis on the centrality of Christ and the person and work of the Holy Spirit.
- IMF offers membership and appropriate ministerial credentials authorizing licensed and ordained members to perform all sacerdotal services.
- In addition, IMF provides many support services to members and their ministries and prays for them regularly.
- IMF requires a level of educational, professional, spiritual, and moral accomplishment and accountability.
- IMF offers church and para-church organizations membership and ministry-specific assistance.
- IMF assists in church planting and works of charity.
- IMF offers ecclesiastical endorsement for military, hospital, police, and prison chaplains.
- IMF is a Missions Sending Agency.

There is a biblical order in the Church. Those in leadership must be servant leaders, and as leaders, they can provide mentorship to those who are younger and less experienced in biblical truth and practice, remembering that they too must give an account to Christ who is Head of all things in the Church. Such is the opportunity and responsibility of providing a "spiritual covering" to those we mentor and serve as IMF takes the words of Peter to heart, "Be shepherds of God's flock that is under your care, serving as overseers not because you must, but because you are willing, as God wants you to be... Young men, in the same way be submissive to those who are older. All of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another".

About IMF

IMF National Headquarters in Minneapolis, Minnesota

International Ministerial Fellowship (IMF) is an association of laymen, clergypersons and churches, who work across denominational lines to love, serve, encourage and help enable those who are called to serve in front-line Christian ministry. Members include layworkers, senior and staff pastors, evangelists, missionaries, active and reserve military chaplains, hospital, hospice and prison chaplains and leaders in para-church organizations such as Young Life, Youth for Christ, Campus Crusade for Christ, Youth With a Mission and many more.

IMF membership provides many resources for churches, ministers, missionaries and chaplains, including appropriate credentialing for ministerial service. Members presently are serving in the U.S. and 51 foreign countries. IMF is a Missions Sending Agency and an Ecclesiastical Endorsing Agency for military, hospital and prison chaplaincy.

Ministry to men and women of all denominations is often expressed through suburban and inner-city churches, city missions, refugee camps, third world humanitarian services, as well as inter-city youth programs. Anywhere the heart of God can be found loving people in need is a potential location for Christian ministry, often expressed through the lives of IMF members.
