

INTERNATIONAL MINISTERIAL FELLOWSHIP®

Growing Together

2005 NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Award Recipients

One of two John L. & Nancy E. Clark Honors Awards was presented to Dr. Charles Wickman as founder of the Pastor in Residence Program.

Bishop W.H. White stands with his wife, Sandra, having been presented the John L. & Nancy E. Clark Honors Award for pastoring Emmanuel Church in Kansas City, MO for over 43 years.

IMF Chaplain, Quentin Collins, was awarded the Centurion Award for his service as a decorated US Air Force Chaplain wounded in action while serving in Iraq.

Rev. David Clark receives the Outstanding Achievement Award for founding the Minneapolis YWAM Base and leading it in an outstanding service record.

Rev. Ruth A. Dutro was awarded the Lifetime Achievement Award for exemplary service during her lifetime as a volunteer, having given over 16,000 hours in hospice ministry.

Becky Tracey, IMF Assistant to the General Secretary, was awarded the Distinguished Service Award in Leadership Solutions for demonstrating initiative in the exercise of leadership skills while providing new and innovative time saving procedures.

Carol Masserano, IMF Associate General Secretary, was awarded the Outstanding Achievement Award for 22 years of sacrificial service working at Southern Railroad, Soo Line Railroad and FedEx Corporation, making it possible for her and her husband to found and develop International Ministerial Fellowship (a Minnesota Corporation).

LeAnn Bruderie, IMF Graphic Designer and Webmaster, was awarded the Ethic of Excellence Award for demonstrating excellence in graphic designs that reflect artistic creativity and still convey the spiritual message contained in the piece.

Rev. Ronald Brovold, IMF Director of Outreach Ministries, was awarded the Community Service Award for performance "above and beyond" in the development and implementation of the Anoka County Police Chaplaincy Program and the Fiesta for Jesus Day of Celebration at the annual Fiesta Bowl in Tempe, Arizona.

*"Render, therefore . . . honor to whom honor is due."
Romans 13:7*

Visit the Conference Highlights link to learn more about the Fellowship and Worship at the 2005 Growing Together Bi-Annual "Come Meet the Family" National Conference.